

Pest Management with Dan Dalton

1.
 - Be able to recognize the major insect pests of turf
 - Be able to know the methods for monitoring these pests' activity
 - Be able to know the available cultural, chemical and biological control measures available for control of these pests
 - Be able to match management tools with particular pests
 - Understand the limitations for organic management of certain turf grass insect pest

Pest Management for Trees & Shrubs

- Be able to recognize the major insect pests of trees and shrubs
- Be able to know the methods for monitoring these pests' activity
- Be able to know the available cultural, chemical and biological control measures available for control of these pests
- Be able to match management tools with particular pests
- Understand the limitations for organic management of certain tree and shrub insects and pests